Position Description

Do you have a passion to build your portfolio and develop your craft as a videographer? Do you love to tell stories and create artistic narratives within a fast paced competitive drum corps environment? Carolina Gold Drum & Bugle Corps is seeking an energetic, aspiring videographer to intern for the 2017 summer season.

The videographer intern creates and executes video projects that document the members, volunteers, staff and the organization as a whole. This candidate will be responsible for creating high-quality digital content for the general projects of Carolina Gold Performing Arts. As a videographer, you will work closely with the corps' media team to create innovative, moving content. This candidate should have a keen eye for sports-related content with strong skills with digital SLR cameras and editing/creating projects in Adobe Creative Cloud. This intern will have an amazing opportunity to travel the country, hone their artistic skills in real-world experiences and build their portfolio of published material.

Must be highly motivated and self-starting.

Responsibilities

- Work as a member of the corps' media team under the direction of the Media Team Coordinator
- Work independently to self-start innovative projects
- Manage simultaneous project tasks and deadlines
- Create on trend and emotionally compelling content for a variety of audiences
- Conceptualize, create and deliver projects in collaboration with corps media team
- Produce high quality content on all assigned projects
- Optimize, organize and prepare files for a variety of mediums
- Other responsibilities as they develop, based on intern interest areas and organization needs

Requirements

- Experience in videography, cinematography, film production or related fields
- Proficiency in Adobe Premiere Pro desired, basic knowledge of After Effects and Adobe Illustrator a plus (ver. CC)
- Experience shooting events (indoor and outdoor) and interviews
- Must have DSLR camera and other necessary equipment
- Must be composed and skilled in making fast pace decisions
- Must be motivated with strong work ethic
- Must have effective interpersonal communication skills
- Must have a sense of humor
- Prior experience shooting marching bands or sporting events w/ testimonials a plus
- Open to feedback, with strong desire to develop professional skills
- Must be highly organized, detailed oriented, punctual and flexible
- Able to prioritize and manage multiple tasks under tight deadlines
- Attention to detail and accountability

Location & Schedule

Carolina Gold internship positions will be structured around the corps' 2017 summer tour and require travel with Carolina Gold Drum & Bugle Corps. Summer Internship positions run from the months of May-September and candidates are highly encouraged to attend April Camp (start and end dates are flexible and based on schedule). Because we meet primarily on the weekends, internship positions will require you to be with us on the weekends. Because this is a tour role, you will be expected to be available to work as needed while on tour.

Compensation

The Carolina Gold internship program will pay for the candidate's housing, transportation, and food while traveling with the corps. Interns are eligible to receive college credit, depending on their institution's policy.

Application Process

Please submit your resume, short cover letter, references, transcripts and supporting applicable materials to membership@carolinagold.org.

Applicants will be subject to a screening project and a series of phone/live interviews as part of the evaluation process.

All qualified applicants will receive consideration for an internship without regard to race, color, sex, age, national origin, religion, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, marital status, citizenship, or any other protected status. Carolina Gold Drum & Bugle Corps offers equal opportunity and treatment to all who apply and is committed to diversity.
